FARBER ITEMS.

I have been informed that my name is published in some paper as in the coming election. I wish it to be understood that I am not a candidate for any office whatever. Some ill disposed persons have circulated a report that I run the county in debt over four hundred dollars while serving as road overseer. If they will examine the record they will find the amount to be $24 50. I built twenty two new bridges and made better roads than any of my predecessors or successors, as al honest citizens will testify.

There has been considerable sick ness and mosquito biting in this vicinity of late, but the health of the people is improving in general and hope they will soon, all be well.

Immense numbers of nattle are be-, ing shipped east by the Chicago & Alton Railroad. Trains are running night and day loaded with cattle horses, and hogs.
